

Name _____ Date _____

Book Title _____

Interrogate With Interrogatives!

Interrogative is a fancy word for a question. When you interrogate someone, you ask the person a lot of questions.

Look in your book for five statements and write them on the lines. Then change each statement into a question.

EXAMPLE: Statement: The detective was the first to arrive at the crime scene.
Interrogative: Was the detective the first to arrive at the crime scene?

1. Statement: _____

Interrogative: _____

2. Statement: _____

Interrogative: _____

3. Statement: _____

Interrogative: _____

4. Statement: _____

Interrogative: _____

5. Statement: _____

Interrogative: _____